

ABOUT THE STATE

HAPPENINGS OF INTEREST FROM DIFFERENT SECTIONS

Orville A. Spear of Shelburne has a pair of spectacles that are over 200 years old.

About 1,000 "fresh air" children from New York City are to be entertained in Vermont during August.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Stone of Pantown had large new potatoes and green peas from their own garden July 4.

Harry W. Shaw of Newport has received an appointment as stenographer and typewriter in the navy department at Washington.

Over 300 students have already been enrolled at the summer school at the University of Vermont and more are expected this week.

The 6-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Adams of Timmow died Saturday of typhoid fever and two other members of the family are ill with it.

Roy and Ralph Knight, two Bellows Falls dentists, have been appointed as first lieutenants in the United States dental reserve corps for field service in France.

Mrs. William Nickerson of Orwell has a hen which in the past few weeks has laid two dozen eggs each with a double yolk, the weight of the two dozen being six pounds.

St. Johnsbury automobile owners are protesting against a peculiar kind of tire puncture which is said to have resulted from phonograph needles, which some unthinking person has thrown into the street.

The Vermont Marble company's store in Proctor was awarded the only prize in the state in a recent window decorating contest held in New England by the Loose-Wiles Biscuit company. James Moore was the decorator.

John McGuirk, an aged Rutland man, was struck by the steps of an electric car in that city Saturday and thrown to the ground, breaking one leg. He is somewhat deaf and did not hear the whistle. The car was in charge of Mr. McGuirk's nephew, Martin McMahon.

Eleanor and Maude Smith picked in the back yard of their home in Gassetts on one afternoon recently 244 four-leaf clovers and 35 five-leaf clovers. From June 4 to June 12, Miss Mae Smith of St. Albans Town had found in one bunch of clover 528 four-leaf clovers and 38 five-leaf.

Charles, the 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles F. Coffin of Woodstock, was injured in a peculiar manner, when playing in a barn with some neighboring boys, a tall cupboard placed there for storage toppling over onto him, the top part striking him across the legs. The right thigh was broken so near the body that a plaster cast could not be applied to hold the fracture in place. He was taken to a Hanover, N. H., hospital.

A large gray draft horse belonging to B. H. McHugh of Rutland was instantly killed Saturday when it ran away and crashed into the side of a building. One shaft of the wagon and part of the harness penetrated the clapboards and inside finish of the wall so that pieces of harness were picked up inside of the structure. One of the animal's shoulders was crowded far out of place.

Although the skull of Miss Bessie Waters of St. Johnsbury, who was thrown from the motorcycle on which she was riding with her fiance last week, was found not to be fractured, as was feared, she was badly bruised and her marriage to Harley Holbrook, which was to have taken place the night after the accident, has had to be indefinitely postponed.

John P. West of Rutland has passed the examination for admission to the aviation corps of the army and will attend an aviation school in Toronto, Ontario. He has been attending the officers' training camp at Plattsburg. Arthur Elkey, also of Rutland, who enlisted some time ago in the cavalry branch of the army, has been transferred to the aviation corps, stationed at San Antonio, Tex.

Charles Cleveland, aged 65 years, an inmate at the house of correction, where he was serving a sentence for intoxication, died there suddenly Friday evening. Heart trouble was the cause of his demise. Mr. Cleveland had lived in Rutland many years and was for some time employed as a railroad conductor.

TO SUCCEED S. C. WILSON.

Republican State Committee Will Elect New Member.

Burlington, July 17.—A special meeting of the Republican state committee will be held on Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the Hotel Vermont for the purpose primarily of electing a chairman to succeed Judge Stanley Wilson of Chelsea, who resigned from the committee after he was elected to the bench.

It will be necessary also to choose a member from Orange county, as Judge Wilson will, of course, not remain on the committee.

A complete reorganization will be made at the meeting Wednesday. Ralph Seales of St. Johnsbury is secretary and Alfred L. Sherman of Burlington the member from Chittenden county.

It was thought best to meet at this time so that the committee would be organized for what might come up politically at any time. No meeting has been held since Judge Wilson went on the bench.

FATHER WANTS GIRL.

And He Also Seeks Reconciliation with His Wife By Law.

Brattleboro, July 17.—A combination of love and law that makes a romance of absorbing interest culminated yesterday in the arrest of Mrs. Ruth N. Dasput, who has been a guest of her mother, Mrs. George S. Parker, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Crosby, on a writ of habeas corpus brought by her husband, Bush Dasput of New Orleans, La., in an attempt to get possession of his four-year-old daughter, Elizabeth W. Dasput. Mr. Dasput, who is a young man of good presence, also is especially desirous of restoring harmony in his family and of having his wife return to her home, and he states that if she will do so and say she is sorry he will gladly receive her to his home, for he still loves her devotedly.

Mr. Dasput has a position in the office of the Standard Oil company in New Orleans, and his wife is a young woman of pleasing personality. He came here a few days ago to get his wife to return home, having been informed that she had decided not to go but would seek to obtain a divorce from him. He went to the Crosby home and saw his wife and child briefly, but the wife took the child into another room and locked the door. Within an hour, without his knowledge, they left town by train, and there was nothing left for him except to bring legal action, which was done by Attorney Frank E. Barber.

Mrs. Dasput was watched by an officer as she stepped off the train with her child in Burlington, and since then she and the child and Mr. and Mrs. Parker have occupied a house in Burlington. A writ of habeas corpus was signed by Judge Fred M. Butler in Chelsea Saturday, but it was not desired to cause Mrs. Dasput any hardship it was decided not to have her detained over Sunday, so the writ was not served until yesterday. Sheriff J. H. Allen of Burlington served the writ, and Mrs. Dasput engaged Attorney Fred G. Webster of Burlington to defend her.

The writ commands the officer to have the child and mother brought before Judge Butler in the county clerk's office in Burlington "immediately after the receipt of this writ," that Mrs. Dasput may be required to show cause, if she any, for taking, restraining and detaining the child.

FOUND BROTHER IN ARMY.

Had Thought Him at His Home in New York City.

Burlington, July 17.—John Paradis of New York City, a member of the 2d cavalry at Fort Ethan Allen, after signing the Knights of Columbus register at the recreation building the other day scanned over a few of the many names on the list and found to his surprise that his brother, who, he supposed, was at home, had enlisted and was stationed at Fort Ethan Allen. He had been in the same building with him without being aware of it. With the aid of the recreation secretary, the brother of the man was found and the two were soon busy talking over the "news from home."

This is only one of the numerous cases, say the officials in charge of the Knights of Columbus and Y. M. C. A. soldier building, in which old friends and often-times near relatives are united.

From the Knights of Columbus building thousands of letters are sent every day. An average of $25 a day is spent for postage stamps and at that many of the soldiers who use the writing tables buy their stamps otherwise. Stationery is furnished free.

The building is always nearly taxed to its capacity. In their spare moments the boys will gather around the victrola and listen for hours at a time to the songs of home.

WOMAN SPEEDER FINED.

Miss Margery Day of East Orange, N. J., in Rutland Court.

Rutland, July 17.—Miss Margery Day of East Orange, N. J., who drives an automobile with the New Jersey registration 2389, pleaded guilty in city court yesterday to the charge of violation of the traffic laws by speeding, and City Judge F. G. Swinnerton fined her $10 and costs of $6.05, which she paid.

The young woman was passing through Center street Sunday evening, preparatory to making the hill between Wales and Court streets, at a speed which Policeman T. C. Elworth estimated at 35 miles an hour. The car became stalled on the incline when the driver shifted the gears and it was found necessary to back to the foot of the slope. The officer then took the car number, ascertained the owner's name and notified her to appear in court yesterday. Grand Juror C. E. Novak prosecuted in the case.

CHAUFFEUR FINED $100.

For Driving Automobile without Owner's Permission.

Brattleboro, July 17.—B. E. Bowen, the chauffeur who drove the big Peerless touring car owned by F. J. Perry of Bellows Falls off a bank of the Bernardston road near the "State rock" district on the night of June 30, pleaded guilty in the municipal court yesterday before Judge Addison E. Cutworth to driving an automobile without permission or knowledge of the owner. A fine of $100 and costs was imposed. Of this amount $50 and cost was paid and the young man was placed on probation until Oct. 1, with the requirement that on or before that time he shall have paid the remaining $50 of the fine.

The state was represented by State Attorney William R. Daley, who said that the young man had a good reputation and that he would ask no more than a substantial fine. Attorney F. E. Barber, who represented the respondent, asked that his client be permitted to change his plea from not guilty to one of nolo contendere, but the court declined to permit that, saying that he would accept a change of plea from not guilty to guilty.

Bowen was giving two friends a ride while waiting for his employer and a party at the Country club. One of the friends, George Barre, a chauffeur, sustained a fracture of one arm in the accident which wrecked the machine.

SIX MONTHS AT WINDSOR

For Man Who Pleaded Guilty to Assaulting His Sweetheart.

Brattleboro, July 17.—Joseph Norisiering, who pleaded guilty last Wednesday afternoon to assault upon his sweetheart and whose case was continued to yesterday for sentence, appeared in the municipal court before Judge A. E. Cutworth. State Atty. William R. Daley informed the court of the circumstances of the assault and said that if the court preferred the young woman would testify. The court was satisfied with the report of the state's attorney and imposed a sentence of not less than six months nor more than 12 months at hard labor in the state prison at Windsor. A wicked looking two-bladed knife of peculiar manufacture was shown as a weapon that was found on the prisoner. He had not attempted to use it on the young woman.

1st Vermont Infantry Nearly Full.

It is expected that the ranks of the 1st Vermont regiment of infantry will be recruited to war strength at the end of this week, according to Lieut. Col. B. S. Hyland of Rutland. Saturday night the regiment was 148 short of its quota of 50 officers and 2,000 men. As the enlistments have been about 150 a week lately, Lieut. Col. Hyland's conjecture will hold true if the present week is up to those immediately preceding it. On two days the Rutland man, who has charge of the enlistments, has taken in 72 men. Another day the new men accepted for service numbered 36. The examinations are becoming more and more severe and at present only 50 per cent of the men who apply pass.

Two Vermont Bankruptcies.

Two petitions in bankruptcy were filed Monday in the office of Clerk F. S. Platt of the United States court. One of the petitioners is Frank Paquette of Burlington, a merchant, who has liabilities of $1,468.14 and assets of $603, with $328 claimed exempt.

A petition has also been filed by John P. Simpson of Lyndon, a section hand. His debts aggregate $310.31 and he has assets of $305, all claimed exempt.

Cataract Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure catarrh of the ears, and that is by a constitutional remedy. Catarrh Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. FARMER BADLY HURT

When Horses Attached to Hay Tedder Ran Away.

Brattleboro, July 17.—Henry Streeter, 70, of North Hinsdale, N. H., a farmer, is in a serious condition at the Memorial hospital as the result of injuries received yesterday when he was thrown from a hay tedder. Several ribs on the left side are fractured and the left lung is punctured.

Mr. Streeter was riding on the tedder when the pole broke and frightened the horses, which started to run. In attempting to stop them he was dragged some distance. Dr. Thomas Rice was summoned and brought the man to the hospital in his automobile.

AMBULANCE MEN TO FRONT.

Two Additional Sections Leave Paris for Active Service.

Paris, July 17.—Two additional sections of the American ambulance corps left for the front yesterday.

ESTATE OF EVA J. JACKSON State of Vermont, District of Randolph, ss. The Honorable Probate Court for the District Afore said:

Whereas, the said deceased, late of Orange, in said district, deceased, GREETING: Whereas, application hath been made to this court in writing, by Martin W. Chamberlain, administrator of said estate, praying for license and authority to sell all the real estate of said deceased, to wit: The home farm, situated in Orange, representing to said court that it would be beneficial to the heirs and all persons interested in the estate of said deceased, to sell said real estate and convert the same into money.

And bringing into court the consent and approbation in writing of all the heirs to said estate residing in this state, and setting forth the situation of the real estate.

WHEREUPON, the said court appointed and assigned the 27th day of July, 1917, at the probate office in Chelsea, in said district, to hear and decide upon said application and petition, and ordered public notice thereof to be given to all persons interested therein, by publishing said order, together with the time and place of hearing, three weeks successively in the Barre Daily Times, a newspaper which circulates in the neighborhood of those persons interested in said estate, all of which public notice has been given to the day assigned for hearing.

THEREFORE, you are hereby notified to appear before said court, at the time and place assigned, then and there in said court to make your objections to the granting of said license, if you see cause. Given under my hand at Chelsea, in said district, the 9th day of July, 1917. GEORGE L. STOW, Judge. July 10-17-24
